Game Summary

Sound, Music and Artwork

- ∞ 3D is great with some cut scenes
- ∞ Variety of enemies with different spoken languages
- ∞ Music is immersive and dialogues are interesting
- ∞ Weapons sounds are unique and realistic

Sound, Music and Artwork (cont.)

- ∞ Faces no longer look like textures stretched around a football, but like an actual person.
- ∞ Characters even have individual fingers!
- ∞ The environments are bright and colorful, and Gameloft uses some cool camera effects such as motion blurring and zoom-to-kill tracking for impressive headshots.

Game Review

Good

∞ Single player mode

- Many environment to play in
- Great story line and 3D graphics
- QuickTime events, exploding walls, and unique enemies makes it immersive
- Smart AI for enemies
- Many weapons (up to 15)
- Challenging but with many assistance: aim assist, auto grenade, auto healing, objective arrow, hints

Game Review

Good (cont.)

∞ Multiplayer player mode

- Fast and Easy to setup
- Variety of modes with up to 10 players (better from the previous release of 4)
- Up to 5 maps to chose from
- Persistent character
- earns experience points, allowing players to level up through 72 ranks
- rise up on the global leaderboard, and unlock new weaponry and perks

Game Review

Bad

∞ Single player mode

- Too many controls on the screen
- Some graphics glitch if played for a long time
- No cover mechanics to quickly duck behind walls and barricades
- No buttons to run
- Controls takes some time to get used to
- Controls not as responsive
- Game play becomes repetitive in the long run

∞ Multiplayer player mode

- The character-tweaking mechanic is too simple
- There's no option to choose game rooms based on player skills

Summary

Strengths

- Great story line
- Great 3D engine
- Variety of environments
- QuickTime events is innovative
- The Best mobile multiplayer on iOS

Weaknesses

- Single player a bit repetitive in the long run
- Too many game controls on the screen
